

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. I.

SPOUT SPRING, KY., FEB. 15, 1896.

NO. 5.

Virden, Ky.,

Feb. 5, 1896.

Editor of Spout
Spring Times,

I am just in receipt of your spicy little sheet, of the 1st.
May your banner long wave.

Glad to see your village on the high road to success. We feel that Virden is the next hamlet to be heard from.

Our enterprising
laxter, Dillard Berryman, has Bug Bryant,
the village blacksmith,
building him a press
and as soon as complete he will publish an 8 column paper,
called Virden Outlook, and until he gets his machine done we want a space in your columns.

Virden is 3 miles west of Clay City on the L. & E. R. R., is the possessor of the finest sulphur spring in Eastern Ky.; has an express office that did 5206lb of freighting in last month

J. W. Elkin, supt.
for Anderson & Clay, makes prices in General merchandise talk

W. G. PATRICK

DEALER IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

W. J. BARNETT

CUSTOM MILLER

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

J. E. BURGHIER, JR.

DEALER IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

THE TIMES

Published

WEEKLY

AT

SPOUT SPRING KY.

Subscription rate:

30cents per year.

Subscribe for it

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS BY THE TIMES PRINTING CO

J. E. BURGHER, JR. EDITOR.

Subscription price
30 cents per annum.

SPOUT SPRING, KY., FEB. 15

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mud mud mud!

Go to church Sunday.

Drink Golden Blend coffee.

Advertise in THE TIMES.

This town needs more side-walks.

Buy your Dry Goods and Notion of J. E. Burgher, jr.

J. F. McKinney is having two tenement houses built on his farm.

Spout Spring needs a Sunday School.

The second snow of the season fell Saturday night.

G. W. Lewis bought of R. King, 3 cattle at $2.25 per lb.

Charley Walters was into town Thursday with a horse for which he paid $1.00.

One of the most delightful occasions of the season, was that of Saturday night, at the home of Miss Alle Barnett, given in honor of Miss Maud Dawson. Children; music was the most prominent feature of the evening in which Miss Bessie Barnett, L. B. Burgher, Berry and Asa Barnett were the graceful performers, on the piano, violin and banjo.

Do You Use

GROCERIES?

Then it will pay you to call on

J. E. BURGHER, JR.

BUY THE COLD DUST RANGE.

The best cooking utensil made.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Calum Baptist Church First sat. and Sun.

Jackson's Chapel, Third Sun. Rev. D. P. W. re Pastor.

Kimbrell's Chapel, First Sun. Rev. F. L. Crouch Pastor.

THE TIMES.

SUPPLEMENT

Spout Spring, Ky.,

Saturday, Feb. 15, 1896.

DIED.

Feb. 11, Aunt Betsy White, at her home two miles west of this place in Clark County, with old age

Rev. Jacob Calmack, of Why Not, is holding a series of meetings at Salem church, which has been well attended considering the muddy roads and inclement weather. He is quite an able minister and will preach on until Sunday night.

SLOPED.

W. S. Griffith sloped the country, Feb. 2; he was the man that taught the public school at this place last fall. He left many creditors behind him, among them was W. G. Patrick, who lost $8.00 by him.

The young lady of Madison County, who was dressed and had the wedding supper prepared, in which Griffith was to play one of the principal parts, was quite fortunate indeed to escape the hand of such a fellow as Griffith.

INVITED.

THE PUBLIC

Is invited to call and examine our goods. Every thing in

General Merchandise

Is kept by us and sold at the very lowest prices.

J. E. BURGHER.

FOR RENT

A FARM OF 64 ACRES

Near town, to grow corn or to graze. Call on

J. E. BURGHER, JR.,

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

BLANK PAGE[S]

PERSONAL MENTION.

B. L. Burgher and Andy Barnett, have been in Clark on business

Mrs. Edith McKinney came home Sunday, after a five-weeks visit to relatives in Clark County.

Miss Maud Dawson of Chilton, was the guest of Miss Allie Barnett, the earlier part of the week.

B. S. Walters and wife, of Clark, came up last Saturday, to the bed-side of their daughter, Mrs. Venson Burris, who is quite sick.

Misses Halie, and Lucy Clark, Emma Snowden and Nanny Barnett, all of Hardwick's creek, were visiting Miss Nanny Snowden, Tuesday.

INVITED.

THE PUBLIC

Is invited to call and examine our goods. Everything in

General Merchandise

Is kept by us and sold at the very lowest prices.

J. E. BURGHER.

STABBED.

George Sparks stabbed John Strange on Hardwick's creek Wednesday. We have not yet learned the particulars; both parties are said to have been drinking.

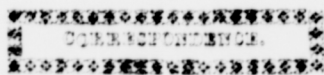

FOR RENT

A FARM OF 64 ACRES

Near town, to grow corn or to graze. Call on

J. E. BURGHER, JR.,

SPOUT SPRING, N.Y.

LILLY'S FERRY.

Edie Crow is on the sick list.

Aunt Sally Pore is visiting relatives in Clark county.

Aunt Betsy White is very sick, and is not expected to recover.

KIMBRELL'S CHAPEL.

Augusta Ames gave the young people of this community a singing Monday night.

Cash Woods sold to Berry Hall a bunch of sheep, last week, for $2.00 per head.

Cash Woods bought of Mrs. Belle Stephen, 5 shoats that will average about 70 lbs, for $11.00.

W. G. PATRICK

Keeps a full line of

GROCERIES, DRY GOODS

AND

General Merchandise.

Call and see us at the old stand

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

Asa Todd says the the largest crawfish he ever saw was 8 feet long, and was dragging a stalk of corn down it's hole as large as a certain young man's legs, in this community.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE TIMES.

MARKETS.

The following are prices paid by the merchants of this place.

Spout Spring, Ky. Feb. 15

Beans,	75c.	$1.20
Beeswax,	25
Beef hides,	3
Corn,	30
Eggs,	6½
Feathers,	30
Hens,	4
Turkeys,	5	